

A RESOLUTION

In Support of the Georgia 2012 Committee's Bid for Georgia to Host the 2012 Republican National Convention

WHEREAS, the State of Georgia is one of the most consistently strong Republican states in the country and has consistently provided the Republican Party strong conservative leaders on a local, state and national level; and

WHEREAS, the Georgia Ninth Congressional District is one of the most consistently Republican districts in the State of Georgia, as well as the entire nation; and

WHEREAS, the Georgia Ninth Congressional District is home to some of this nation's most beautiful landmarks, all of which would be of great interest and value to those who visit our great state and district; and

WHEREAS, the Georgia Ninth Congressional District is home to some of this nation's most courteous and hospitable citizens; and

WHEREAS, the City of Atlanta and the State of Georgia have hosted numerous major conventions and events, including the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games, but have never hosted the Republican National Convention; and

WHEREAS, a grassroots organization of volunteers, the Georgia 2012 Committee, has come together to submit a bid to the Republican National Committee for Georgia to host the 2012 Convention; and

WHEREAS, the Ninth District Republican Party endorses the efforts of the Georgia 2012 Committee to bring the 2012 Republican National Convention to Georgia;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Ninth District Republican Party, in convention assembled this 18th day of April, 2009, hereby endorses and supports the efforts of the Georgia 2012 Committee and stands ready to support and assist the Committee in those efforts; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Convention Secretary transmit a copy of this resolution to Ms. Maria Strollo Zack, the Chair of the Georgia 2012 Committee.
